Re: Notice of Ex Parte Communication, Dockets 94-102, 04-36, 05-196

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On Tuesday, March 7, 2006, all except one of the representatives of the National Association of State Nine-One-One Administrators ("NASNA") listed on the Attachment met with Commissioner Adelstein and his Senior Legal Advisor, Barry Ohlson.

On Wednesday, March 8, 2006, various combinations of the persons on the Attachment met with:

Fred Campbell and Ian Dillner of the Chairman's Office;
Commissioner Copps and Legal Advisors Jessica Rosenworcel and John Giusti; Wireline Competition Bureau Chief Tom Navin and staff; and Wireless Telecommunications Bureau Acting Chief Cathy Seidel and her Deputy, Jim Schlichting.

The NASNA representatives discussed the general importance of state coordination in 9-1-1 matters; problems with VOIP deployment; and wireless E9-1-1 concerns including accuracy testing, non-initialized handsets and location-capable handset penetration. The group also raised concerns about the Next Generation (NG) 9-1-1 initiative in relation to local exchange carrier legacy networks and the need for a
